The New York Stallion Service Auction is committed to promoting the Morgan Horse Breed and supporting its members by making available to qualified bidders, Morgan stallions whose owners have agreed to donate a breeding to the NYSSA for the prevailing winning bid. Details, photographs, and related documents, etc., (as provided by stallion owners or their agents) are made available for bidder inspection prior to and at the auction event. The NYSSA expressly recommends and cautions potential bidders to review all available information prior to the bidding process. The NYSSA makes every effort to ensure accuracy in its offerings, but cannot and will not substantiate the details or condition of stallions offered. In the event of changes, errors, and/or omissions to the printed catalog, the auctioneer will make appropriate announcement prior to the opening of the bidding process at the auction event. Breeding contracts (to cover such items as collection fees, shipping fees, and attendant arrangements) as supplied by stallion owners are provided to the successful bidder for execution and completion of the auction event process. All subsequent arrangements and undertakings are between stallion owner and successful bidder ONLY. The NYSSA is an avenue for the purchase of stallion service, and shall not be held liable for any breach of contract, dispute, or other dissatisfaction. All sales are final.
